WILLIE LEON MATTHEWS	)	IN THE GENERAL SESSIONS COURT OF ROBERTSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
vs.	)
MARY FRANCES (PARKER) MATTHEWS	)	RULE NO. 1997

DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 23 day of April, 1964, before the Honorable Earl Swann, Judge, upon the original bill of complaint, the sworn answer of the defendant in which she submits her right to the jurisdiction of this Court and waives the venue; upon oral testimony of witnesses heard in open Court, and the entire record in the cause, from all of which the Court finds and holds that the allegations contained in the original bill are sustained by the proof, that is, the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper;

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be forever and perpetually dissolved and the complainant is restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person;

And it further appearing to the Court from statement of counsel that the parties have acquired a house and lot identified as 74 Jonell Drive, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, wherein certain household goods and effects are located and in use by the parties, the same being approximate value of $1500.00 and it appearing to the Court that the parties have agreed to a settlement of their property rights between themselves in that it is agreed between the parties that title to the said house and lot containing all of the furniture, household goods and effects shall be divested out of the complainant and vested in the defendant, and the Court approving said property settlement agreement, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and
