OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
MINUTE BOOK 41, PAGE 14

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on December 8, 1964, and subsequent days of the term, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, etc., upon the filing of two (2) original bills, one of which being the bill filed by Willard Allen Oakley, Appearance No. 41927, being considered the answer to the original bill of Mary Oakley; upon the testimony of their corroborating witnesses; upon the argument of the solicitors and the entire record in this cause, From all of which the Court, according to its Memorandum Opinion dated December 9, 1964, is of the opinion and finds that the complainant, Mary Oakley, did sufficiently prove her cause of action against the original defendant upon the statutorily alleged ground of cruel and inhuman treatment by her testimony and that of her corroborating witnesses, and therefore, she should be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the cross-complainant, Willard Oakley, did not sufficiently prove his cause of action, and therefore, the cross-bill should be forthwith dismissed and disallowed. The Court's abovementioned Memorandum Opinion is incorporated herein as fully as though same were copied verbatim.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby perpetually dissolved and the complainant, Mary Oakley, is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the cross-bill heretofore filed by Cross-Complainant, Willard Oakley, be and the same is hereby dismissed and disallowed.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the complainant, Mary Oakley, shall have and recover of the defendant, Willard Oakley, as alimony, all of the right, title and interest that

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the principal custody of the parties' minor children shall be awarded to the complainant and the defendant shall have rights of visitation at all reasonable times and places and it is the real hope and desire of the Court that these times and places can be worked out amicably by the solicitors of record representing the principals herein, but if this is impossible, then this can be adjudicated upon motion to this Court at a subsequent date.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the defendant, Willard Allen Oakley, shall pay into the hands of the Clerk of this Court, the sum of $105.00 each week for the continued support and maintenance of the parties' three (3) minor children, the first weekly payment being due on or before the week ending December 12, 1964.
