FINAL DECREE OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard this 19th day of June, 1964, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, holding the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the complainant's bill of complaint, the pro confesso entered against the defendant, testimony of witnesses heard in open Court, the property settlement agreement signed by each of the parties and submitted to the Court, and the entire record from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the facts and charges alledged in complainant's bill are true. That the defendant, Winifred Smoot Outlaw, has abandoned complainant or turned her out of doors and refused or neglected to provide for her. The Court is further of the opinion that the defendant is guility of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to be under his dominion and control.

The Court after hearing this cause and after having taken it under advisement for a period of four days and after having carefully studied the property settlement agreement entered into and signed by each of the parties and submitted to the Court, finds that certain portions of said property settlement agreement are against public policy and that it is inequitable for a husband and father of a minor child to contract away his legal obligation for the support of his minor child, the Court therefore, upon its own instigation makes the following ruling relative to a property settlement between the parties and in regard to present and future child support: the Court awards all title and interest in that real property located at 611 Wade Circle, Davidson County, Tennessee, to the complainant, Mary Elizabeth Outlaw; the Court awards custody and control of the minor child of the parties to the complainant, Mary Elizabeth Outlaw and further awards to the complainant the sum of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars per week as maintenance and support for the minor child of the parties; however, the defendant need not make any payments on child support until after the passage of 100 calendar weeks, which will in effect give to the defendant a credit of Fifteen Hundred ($1,500.00) Dollars toward child support as an overall part of the property settlement agreement as amended and decreed by the Court. The Court is further of the opinion that the defendant should be enjoined from coming about the person of the complainant and from coming about the premises of the complainant at 611 Wade Circle, Davidson County, Tennessee, and from calling the complainant by telephone and from calling complainant's employer by telephone and from in any way molesting the complainant or from interfering with the complainant's custody and control of the minor child of the parties. The defendant may at any time apply to the Court by petition for visitation privileges with the minor child of the parties, and if the Court deems such visitation privileges suitable and proper, they will be allowed.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the Complainant and Defendant be absolutely and perpetually dissolved and that Complainant be vested with all the rights and privileges of an unmarried woman.

2. That custody of the minor child of the parties, Helen Jane Outlaw, be and is hereby awarded to the complainant.
