FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Alfred Adams, Chancellor of Part II of the Chancery Court at Nashville, upon the original bill, answer to the guardian ad litem, pro confessos heretofore taken, briefs of counsel, and the entire record from all of which the Court is of the opinion that Sue White is vested with an absolute estate in the property devised to her in the following paragraph of the will of Pauline Andrew Mitchell:

> "The real estate on Highway 100 to be held and disposed of as Sue White so desires."

The Court is further of the opinion that Sue White is vested with an absolute estate in the property bequeathed to her in the following paragraph of said will:

> "Any personal effects to be disposed of as Sue White desires with the exception of the G. E. Freezer - that to be retained and held by Sue White".

The Court is further of the opinion that the funds in the savings accounts belong absolutely to Sue White by operation of law but due to the following paragraph of said will, Sue White is put to an election to pay over to Bruce Andrew $50.00 outcof the savings accounts belonging to her at the death of the testatrix and bequeathed to the said Bruce Andrew or give up the other devise and bequest made to her by the testatrix.

> "Savings account to be held and given solely to Sue White, with the exception of $50.00 to Bruce Andrew."

Whereupon Sue White in open court elected to pay to Bruce Andrew the $50.00 bequeathed to him by the testatrix and thereby became vested in an absolute estate in the property devised and bequeathed to her by the testatrix.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that Sue White is vested with an absolute estate in the property devised and bequeathed to her in the paragraphs herein quoted; she having elected to pay over to Bruce Andrew $50.00 bequeathed to him in said will.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that Alden Smith be paid $50.00 as a reasonable fee for his service as guardian ad litem herein.

The complainant will pay the cost of the cause for which execution may issue if necessary.
