For and in Consideration of the sum of Five Thousand, Seven Hundred, Fifty and no/100 ($5,750.00) Dollars, of which Three Thousand and no/100 ($3,000.00) Dollars, has been paid in cash by William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing

the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and for the remainder Two Thousand, Seven Hundred, Fifty and no/100 ($2,750.00) Dollars, the said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing have executed their one promissory note of even date herewith payable in eighty-four (84) monthly installments of $40.18 each including interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of 6% per annum. First payment is due August 1, 1966 and on or before the 1st day of each suceeding month thereafter until the entire amount is paid in full.

all of said notes bearing six per cent interest from date, and providing for payment of attorney's fees, and to secure the payment of said notes, principal and interest, and attorney fees, a lien is expressly retained on the land herein conveyed, Roy Conway Flowers, an unmarried man have this day bargained and sold, and do hereby transfer and convey unto the said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing, their heirs and assigns, certain real estate in Davidson County, Tennessee, as follows:

BEING Lot No. 25 on the plan of F. O. Beazley's Subdivision of the Vaughn Tract, as of record in Plan Book No. 2, page 105, Chancery Court at Nashville,

SAID Lot No. 25 fronts 50 feet on the easterly side of Hart Street and runs back between parallel lines 150 feet to an alley.

BEING the same property conveyed to Roy Conway Flowers, an unmarried man, by deed from Marion Bennington Latta Cummings and husband, Joseph G. Cummings, as of record in Book 4004, page 145, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

To Have and to Hold said real estate, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging, to the said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing heirs and assigns forever. I covenant that I am lawfully seized and possessed of said real estate in fee simple, have a good right to convey it, and that the same is unencumbered.

I further covenant and bind myself and my heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to said real estate to said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing their heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons.

And now, for the purpose of better and more effectually securing the payment of said lien notes, and rendering unnecessary court proceedings for the enforcement of said lien in the event of the non-payment of said notes, as they mature, as hereinafter provided, and for the consideration of one dollar, to me in hand paid, We, the said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing do hereby transfer and convey unto Caesar E. Urrutia, Trustee his successors and assigns, the real estate hereinbefore described, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging, for the purposes aforesaid, only.

We, the said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing do hereby agree to keep all buildings now on, or to be hereafter erected on said property, insured in some reliable fire insurance company or companies for at least the sum of $2,750.00 until the notes herein secured are fully paid, and to have the loss, if any, made payable on the policy or policies to said Trustee for the benefit of the lawful owner and holder of said notes, as his interst may appear.

We further agree to keep the improvements on said property in good repair and preservation, and to pay all taxes and assessments thereon, and to pay them when due; and in case we fail to do either, then the said Trustee, or the lawful owner and holder of said notes, or any of them, may do any or all of these things, and charge and treat the sum or sums so expended as part of the indebtedness secured therein, the same to bear interest from the date of such payment.

Now, if we, the said William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing shall pay the notes aforesaid when due, according to their terms, and pay taxes, keep up repairs, and keep said premises insured, as aforesaid, then this trust conveyance shall be of no further force or effect. But if we fail to pay any one of said notes or part thereof, promptly at maturity or if, failing to pay taxes, keep up repairs or keep said premises insured as herein provided; we fail to reimburse the Trustee or lawful owner and holder of said notes for all sums, with interest, so expended by said Trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said notes, within thirty days from date of such payment, this trust conveyance shall remain in full force and effect, and at the option of the lawful owner and holder of said notes, or any of said notes then past due and unpaid, all remaining unpaid notes shall become due and payable at once, without notice, and the said Trustee, or his successor in trust, is hereby authorized and empowered, upon giving twenty days' notice by three publications in any newspaper, daily or weekly, published in Davidson County, Tennessee, to sell said property at the front door of the Court House in said county to the highest bidder for cash, at public outcry, free from the equity of redemption, homestead, dower and all other exemptions of every kind, which are hereby expressly waived; and the said Trustee, or his successor in trust, is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser. The creditor may bid at any sale under this trust conveyance. We agree, that the Trustee may, at any time after default in the payment of any one of said notes, enter and take possession of said property, and shall only account for the net rents actually received by him. We further agree that, in the event the Trustee fails, before selling said property, as herein provided, to enter and take possession thereof, the purchaser shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof upon the delivery to him by the Trustee of a deed for said property. In case of sale hereunder, the proceeds will be applied by the Trustee as follows:

1st. To the payment of all costs, charges and expenses of executing this conveyance and enforcing said lien as herein provided; also reasonable attorney's fees for advice in the premises, or for instituting or defending any litigation which may arise on account of the execution of this conveyance, or the enforcement of said lien; also the expenses of any such litigation.

2nd. To the payment of all taxes which may be unpaid on said premises.

3rd. To the payment of all unpaid notes herein secured, and any and all sums expended in the protection of said property, as herein authorized.

4th. The residue, if any, will be paid to William Ewing and Maude Ewing representatives or assigns.

In case of the death, absence, inability or refusal to act of said Trustee at any time when action under the foregoing power and trusts may be required, the lawful owner and holder of said lien notes, or, if more than one, then of the first-maturing unpaid note, is hereby authorized and empowered to name and appoint a successor to execute this trust by an instrument in writing to be recorded in the Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, and the title herein conveyed to Caesar E. Urrutia, Trustee, shall be vested in said successor.

Said Trustee shall execute this trust without being required to give bond, and he shall not be required to file any account or settlement in relation to his trusteeship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the said Roy Conway Flowers, an unmarried man and William Ewing and wife, Maude Ewing hereunto set our hands at Nashville, Tennessee, this the 30th day of June 1966
