This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, Probate Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, this 18th day of July, 1967, upon the original complaint filed by the complainant, Linda Gay Cherry Bertoli, and answer of the defendant, Antonio Bertoli, said answer having been withdrawn prior to the hearing of this cause, and the matter was heard before the Court on an uncontested basis. From the testimony of complainant and her corroborating witnesses, statement of counsel, and upon the entire record of this cause, the Court finds that the original complainant did sustain her grounds for divorce, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control;

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties, be and the same are forever and perpetually dissolved, and the complainant, Linda Gay Cherry Bertoli, is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, Antonio Bertoli, and is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the complainant is a fit and proper person to have the absolute care, custody and control of the minor child, it is, accordingly, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the absolute care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, to wit, Michael Bertoli, be vested in the complainant, with the defendant having the following rights of visitation:

The defendant shall have the right to have the said aforementioned minor child in his possession on alternate Friday nights. He shall call for the child at the residence of the complainant at 5:00 P.M. on Fridays, and return the child at the residence of the complainant at 5:00 P.M. on the following Saturday. The first such period of visitation shall commence on the weekend of Friday, July 21, 1967. On the weekends when the defendant does not have the child with him overnight, the defendant shall have the right and privilege to have the child with him from 7:30 A.M. on Saturday until 3:30 P.M. on Saturday, calling for the child and re-delivering the child to the residence of the complainant. The defendant shall pay to the complainant as support for the minor child the sum of $30.00 per week, said payments to be made directly to complainant by appropriate check, and due on Saturday of each week subsequent to the entry of this decree. Both parties shall be enjoined from removing the minor child from the jurisdiction of the Court, except for normal vacation purposes, unless permission be granted by the Court.

The real property formerly owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety, shall be vested in the complainant to be hers absolute. All of defendant's right, title and interest in said aforementioned property shall be divested from the defendant and vested in the complainant, said property being described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 100 on the Plan of Stanford Country Club Estates, Section III, as of record in Book 2900, page 67, Register's Office for said County, and described as follows:
> Said Lot No. 100 fronts 95.9 feet on the south side of Myrick Drive, and runs back 165.85 feet on the westerly side and 165.1 feet on the easterly line to a dead line in the rear, which is a broken line, on which it measures 110 feet.
> Being the same property conveyed to Antonio Bertoli by deed from Linda Cherry Bertoli, of record in Book 3462, page 633, said Register's Office.

In addition thereto, the furnishings located in said property shall be vested absolutely in the complainant. Complainant is awarded the 1965 Pontiac automobile that she has been operating, and defendant is awarded the automobile that he has been operating, to be theirs absolute.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties had in savings an amount totalling $2,000.00, on which there is presently a balance of $1,240.17, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said aforementioned amount of money shall be awarded the defendant.

Both parties are specifically enjoined from in any way or in any manner harming, bothering or molesting the opposite party in any manner whatsoever.

The defendant will pay to Jack Norman, Jr., solicitor for the complainant, the sum of $300.00 as his reasonable fee for services rendered complainant in this cause. In addition thereto, the defendant will pay the costs of this cause, all for which execution may issue, if necessary.
