This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge of Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, on this the 11th day of March, 1968, upon the original bill for absolute divorce heretofore filed in this cause, the answer filed by defendant, the testimony of witnesses in open Court, statements of counsel, and the entire record,

From all of which the Court is of the opinion and finds that petitioner has sustained the allegations of her bill, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment toward her as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control.

The Court further finds that petitioner is entitled to an absolute divorce from defendant and that she should have the exclusive custody of the minor child of the parties, with reasonable visitation rights in defendant, and defendant is to pay $15.00 each week to petitioner for the support and maintenance of said minor child of the parties; that defendant is entitled to the 1967 Oldsmobile automobile and the colored television; and that petitioner is entitled to all the other household furnishings of the parties, the house, and the 1965 Mustang automobile.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the Court that petitioner be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce from defendant and is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person; that petitioner be and hereby is awarded the exclusive care, custody, and control of the minor child of the parties, with reasonable visitation rights in the defendant; and that defendant is to pay to petitioner the sum of $15.00 each week, commencing March 15, 1968, for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the parties; that petitioner's interest in the 1967 Oldsmobile automobile and the colored television be and hereby is divested out of her and vested in defendant; and that defendant's interest in all the other household furnishings of the parties, the 1965 Mustang automobile and the house of the parties be divested out of him and vested in petitioner, said house is described as follows:
