FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 20th day of October, 1966, before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, upon the original bill of complaint, the pro confesso duly entered, examination of witnesses in open Court, statement of counsel, and the entire record in this cause, the parties being before the Court by personal service of process, from all of which the Court is of the opinion:

That the allegations contained in complainant's original bill have been fully sustained by the proof, that is: That defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper, nor should she continue under his dominion and control.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between complainant, Carlene Cook, and defendant, Robert A. Cook, be and herewith are, perpetually dissolved and held for naught, and complainant is granted an absolute divorce from defendant and restored to all rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

One child has been born to this union, Robert A. Cook, Jr., born 7/10/63 and the Court further finds that complainant is a fit and proper person to have and is therefore hereby granted the exclusive care, custody and control of this said minor child, and defendant is to have full and free rights of visitation at reasonable times and places.

The Court further approves, with the exception hereinafter stated, the Agreement signed by the parties and their attorneys, which Agreement is as follows:
