FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 14th day of April, 1969, and prior days of the term, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, etc., upon the original bill of divorce filed by Betty Jean Potts Carvell, upon a pro confesso taken and entered against the Defendant, upon a consent order allowing the filing of a supplemental bill, upon the filing of the supplemental bill, upon the answer to the supplemental bill, upon the testimony of the Complainant and that of her corroborative witnesses on two separate dates, upon the statement of the solicitors and the entire record herein and the Court did take this cause under advisement and thereafter file a memorandum opinion which is incorporated herein by reference as if fully copied, and from all of which, the Court is of the opinion and finds as follows:

That the Complainant has sufficiently proven her cause of action for an absolute divorce on the statutory allegation of adultery with one Martha Flippen and a permanent injunction should issue against the Defendant from marrying the said Martha Flippen during the lifetime of the Complainant herein or pursuant to Section 36-831, Tennessee Code Annotated.

Further, that the custody of the minor children should be awarded the Complainant herein, with the Defendant to have reasonable rights of visitation and further, the Court is of the opinion that the child support heretofore ordered should remain in full force and effect and the solicitor of record representing the Complainant should be awarded a fee in the amount of $250.00, and that all right, title and interest the Defendant may have in and to the real property of the parties, as well as the furnishings therein and also a 1953 Ford automobile, shall be divested from him and re-invested in the Complainant, to be hers in fee simple title.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are perpetually dissolved and the Defendant, Glenn Allen Carvell, is permanently enjoined from marrying one Martha Flippen during the lifetime of the Complainant or pursuant to Section 36-831, Tennessee Code Annotated.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the custody of the minor children is vested in the Complainant, subject to the right of the Defendant to visit with said children at reasonable times and places.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Defendant shall pay as support for the two (2) minor children the total sum of $250.00 per month, said payments to be made $125.00 on the 11th and 26th day of each month to the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Complainant shall have judgment against and recover from the Defendant the sum of $450.00, the same being the total amount of support in arrears as previously assessed by previous orders of this Court.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Complainant's solicitor of record have judgment against and recover from the Defendant the sum of $250.00, the Court finding this sum to be a reasonable fee for services rendered to her.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all of the Defendant's right, title and interest in and to the real property of the parties at 314 Rural Hill Road, as well as the furnishings located therein, and also a 1953 Ford Automobile shall be divested from him and vested in the Complainant, the same to be hers absolutely in fee simple title, said real estate being more particularly described as follows:
