DOROTHY GLADYS FLAIR DIXON)

VS:) RULE NO. 49032

ROBERT JAMES DIXON)

JUN23 MISC A* 4.50 * 4.50

Final DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this 17th day of February, 1970, before Honorable Benson Trimble, upon the original bill of complaint, service of process had upon the defendant by publication, he being at the time a non-resident of the state of Tennessee, four amended and supplemental bills, pro confessos heretofore having been taken and entered against the defendant upon the original and supplemental bills, former orders of the Court, the testimony of witnesses examined in open Court, and upon the entire record in the case from all of which the Court finds that the allegations of the original and supplemental bills of complaint that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards complainant as renders it unsafe and improper for her to longer cohabit with him has been fully sustained by the proof.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between complainant and defendant be and the same are hereby and forever and perpetually dissolved. Dorothy Gladys Flair Dixon is granted an absolute divorce from Robert James Dixon and is restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

The exclusive care and custody of the minor children of the parties, Florence Elizabeth Dixon, Roberta Elaine Dixon, and Michael James Dixon is awarded to the complainant but the defendant may visit with the children at reasonable times and provided he conduct himself in a circumspect manner and be sober.

The support order heretofore made and entered in the case against the defendant is to remain in full force and effect; that is, the defendant shall pay to the Clerk of this Court, twice a month, the sum of $60.00 for the support of the minor children of the parties, together with 5 per cent Clerk's fee. The defendant shall also pay to Robert H. Polk, solicitor for complainant, the sum of $150.00 as his final fee in this case, which sum is in addition to the awards of solicitor's fees heretofore made by the Court. It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed by the Court that all of the right, title, and interest of the defendant in and to the real estate owned by the parties and located at 636 West Green Lane, and more particularly described as Metro Map No. 49, Parcel No. 120, of record in deed Book 3937, Page 141, RODC, Tennessee, is hereby divested out of the defendant, Robert James Dixon, and is hereby vested in Dorothy Gladys Flair Dixon as indefeasible title in fee simple. All of the household goods and appliances is also awarded to complainant.

The injunction heretofore issued and in full force and effect in this cause is hereby made perpetual except as to the defendant's visitation rights set out hereinabove.

The defendant will pay the costs of the cause for all of which and for the above monetary awards, execution may issue.
