FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 19th day of January 1970, before the Honorable Henson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, having been put on the contested docket, upon the original bill of complaint and amendment thereto, and upon the two answers of defendant, and upon the entire record in this cause, the examination of witnesses in open Court, statement of counsel, the defendant being before the Court by personal service of process, from all of which the Court finds that the allegations in complainants bills and amendment have been fully sustained by the proof, that is: That in violation of Section 36-801 (4) TCA defendant is guilty of willful and malicious desertion or absence, without a reasonable cause, for one (1) whole year.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the complainant, ANDREW L. BROWN, be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce from defendant, ELIZABETH ANN BROWN, and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

The Court further finds that complainant is entitled to and is herewith DECREED any and all equity that defendant may have in the house of the parties, which is located at 1806 Scott Avenue, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, monthly payments on which are paid through the Guaranty Mortgage Company, 316 Union Street, Nashville, in the amount of $84.08 per month, and any and all equity defendant may have in the house is divested out of her and into complainant.

And it further appearing to the Court that the defendant has previously taken certain items of personalty -- such as stove, refrigerator and other living utilities, she is herewith DECREED [illegible] the Court.

This instrument was prepared by W D. Hawkins, Jr., Atty, Fisk University, Nash. Tenn 37203
