DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard this 12th day of January, 1972, before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge of the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, on the complainant's petition for absolute divorce, personal service of process upon the defendant, the pro confesso heretofore entered in the cause, the testimony of witnesses in open Court, the statements of counsel for complainant, and the entire record, from all of which the Court is of the opinion and finds that the complainant, James Richard Salmon, has sustained the allegations in his petition for divorce in that the defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards him.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the complainant be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that such interest as the defendant might have in the hereinafter described real property purchased by the parties as tenants by the entirety be vested out of the defendant and in the complainant subject to all existing and valid encumbrances of record. The hereinbefore mentioned real property is more specifically described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being the southwesterly part of Lot No. 74 on the plan of Donelson Meadows, Section 2, as of record in Book 2133, pages 100 and 101, Register's Office for said County.

BOOK 4569 PAGE 910

Said part of Lot No. 74 fronts 99.06 feet on the northeasterly side of Brookview Drive and runs back 204.3 feet on the northwesterly line and 214.9 feet on the southeasterly line to the southwesterly right-of-way of Briley Parkway and measures 91.1 feet.

Being the same property conveyed to James R. Salmon and wife, Ruby Inman Salmon, by deed from Philip L. Grindstaff and wife, Vivian H. Grindstaff, as of record in Book 4226, page 217, said Register's Office.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the Court that the defendant pay the costs of this cause for which execution may issue, if necessary.
