ORDER

This cause came on to be heard on this the 18th day of July, 1972, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, Division IV of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original complaint, the answer and cross-bill, and the answer to the cross-complaint. Following presentation of proof and argument of counsel, the Court took the matter under advisement for the rendition of a memorandum opinion. By memorandum opinion under date of July 19, 1972, the Court is of the opinion that the original plaintiff did sustain her grounds for divorce, that is, that the original defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards her as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff, Jewell Dean Robinson, is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, Rubin Collier Robinson, and she is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person. The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are forever and perpetually dissolved. The cross-complaint is dismissed.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the custody of the minor children, to wit, Michael Wray, Deborah Lynn, and Randall Lee, shall be vested with the plaintiff, with the right and privilege of the defendant to see and visit said aforementioned children at reasonable times and places.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff as child support the sum of $400.00 per month, with the understanding, however, that said sum shall be paid in four equal weekly installments, the first payment to be made on the first Monday subsequent to the entry of this decree. Said payments are to be made directly to the plaintiff by check.

As alimony in solido, all of defendant's right, title and interest in and to the home of the parties located at 91 Vaden Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, as is now vested in the defendant shall be divested from the defendant and awarded to the plaintiff in fee simple, it being the intention of the Court to award to the plaintiff the equity in the home formerly owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety. The defendant shall execute such documents as may be necessary for the transfer thereof. In addition thereto, all of the household furniture located at said aforementioned residence is awarded to the plaintiff, and all of defendant's right, title and interest thereto is divested from the defendant. The saw and guns of the defendant shall become the property of the defendant. The motor vehicle that the plaintiff has been operating shall become the sole property of the plaintiff, and defendant shall execute such documents as may be necessary for the transfer thereof.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties are the owners of certain cemetery lots, it is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that said lots shall be sold, and that the proceeds from said sale shall go toward the eradication of debts incurred by the plaintiff as the result of charges made at or immediately subsequent to the filing of her original petition, for items of furniture, house repairs, etc., said charges being in the approximate amount of $2,200.00, and in accordance with the exhibit made by the plaintiff at the original show cause hearing. In the event that the sale of said lots shall bring in more money than the amount set forth above, then and in that event, the balance shall be applied toward the eradication of other family debts incurred subsequent thereto.

The Fruehauf stock shall become the sole property of the defendant.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant continue to carry the same type insurance he now has with various companies, with the understanding, however, that plaintiff shall be permitted to change the beneficiaries thereunder to that of the minor children.

The defendant will either have copied the picture of the daughter Debbie, and give a copy to the plaintiff, or he will return the original picture to the plaintiff. In addition thereto, the defendant will return the Polaroid camera to the plaintiff, said camera to be the sole property of the plaintiff. The defendant is ordered to take whatever steps as are necessary under his major medical insurance to make such payments for necessary drug bills for any member of the family group as such medical insurance affords protection therefor.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the remaining bills that have been unpaid, but were ordered paid on a pendente lite basis, will be paid by the defendant.

It is the further opinion of the Court, and as additional alimony, that the defendant shall pay to the Honorable James Patrick Nichol, an additional $350.00 as his reasonable fee for services rendered plaintiff in this cause. The defendant shall pay the costs of this cause, all for which execution may issue, if necessary.
