DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the HONORABLE SHELTON LUTON, JUDGE of the Probate Court, on this the 22nd day of September, 1966, upon the original bill filed herein, the order pro confesso heretofore duly entered, the testimony of witnesses examined in open Court, the argument of counsel, and the entire record; from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill have been sustained; that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards complainant as to make it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with him or remain under his dominion and control; and second, that the defendant has abandoned complainant, turned her out of doors and refused or neglected to provide for her.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be, and they hereby are, forever and perpetually dissolved; and that the complainant be, and she hereby is, granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to the status of an unmarried person.

It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court that the complainant have, and she hereby has, the exclusive care, custody and control of the parties minor child, Nancy Ann Woodall, age 18.

It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court that all right, title, equity and interest which the defendant has in and to the real estate owned by the parties, located at 1161 Old Hickory Blvd., Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, and the 1963 Pontiac automobile, as well as the household furniture and furnishings owned by the parties, be, and it hereby is, divested out of the defendant and vested in complainant.

The defendant will pay the costs of this cause, for which execution may issue.
