FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 9th day of February, 1972, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, holding the Fourth Circuit Court in Davidson County, at Nashville, upon the original complaint filed by the complainant, interrogatories submitted by the complainant and witnesses, and the entire record in this cause.

It satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and imp oper for her to remain under his dominion and control, and that the complainant should be awarded an absolute divorce of and from the defendant, it is, therefore,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by this Court that the complainant be and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce of and from the defendant Henry Clayton Sadler, and is hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties hereto have entered into a property settlement agreement, whereby the complainant will assume the indebtedness to Jewell T. Department Store, Gossage Jewelry Store and Grant's Department Store, and that the complainant will be permitted to retain all merchandise purchased from the above mentioned stores; and it further appearing that all the right, title and interest in the real property located at 5612 O'Brien Avenue, Davidson County, Tennessee, will be vested in the defendant and divested from the complainant; and it further appearing that all the furniture and furnishings will be vested in the defendant and divested from the complainant. However, complainant will retain the table television set; and it further appearing that complainant will assume the responsibility of paying her attorneys their reasonable fee, it is, therefore,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that complainant will assume the indebtedness to Jewell T. Department Store, Gossage Jewelry Store and Grant's Department Store, and that the complainant will be permitted to retain all merchandise purchased from the above mentioned stores; and that all the right, title and interest in the real property located at 5612 O'Brien Avenue, Davidson County, Tennessee, will be vested in the defendant and divested from the complainant; and that all the furniture and furnishings will be vested in the defendant and divested from the complainant. However, complainant will retain the table television set and assume the responsibility of paying her attorneys their reasonable fee.

It is further ORDERED that the costs of this cause be assessed against the defendant, for all of which execution may issue if necessary.

This the ____ day of _____, 1972.
