ELISE LEDBETTER WYNNE)
vs.) No. 57488
RAYMOND HOWARD WYNNE)

Final DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, holding the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, on June 16, 1970, upon the original bill for divorce, personal service upon the defendant, order of pro confesso, testimony of the complainant and two witnesses in open court, and the entire record in this cause; from all of which the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as to render further cohabitation unsafe and improper, and that the complainant is entitled to an absolute divorce.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the complainant, Elise Ledbetter Wynne, is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Raymond Howard Wynne, and that custody of the minor child of the parties, Richard Howard Wynne, is granted to the complainant.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties have heretofore entered into a property settlement agreement, which in the opinion of the Court is equitable and proper in all respects, and which provides for the payment by the defendant to the complainant of the sum of $50.00 per week plus the Clerk's commission for support of the children of the complainant, to be continued during the minority of Richard Howard Wynne and the disability of Ann Wynne.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the property settlement agreement heretofore entered into by the parties, which is set forth herein in words and figures is made the judgment of this Court, with the exception that the defendant shall pay the child support of $50.00 per week provided for to the Circuit Court Clerk together with 5% charge for Clerk's fees, a total of $52.50 beginning July 1, 1970, and shall continue such payments until further orders of the court.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, entered into on the date shown below by and between ELISE LEDBETTER WYNNE, hereinafter referred to as the wife, and RAYMOND HOWARD WYNNE, hereinafter referred to as husband; and,

WHEREAS, the wife has filed a suit for absolute divorce in the Probate Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, and service has been had upon the husband, and the parties agree to enter into an agreement concerning the real and personal property, subject to approval of the Court, and they agree as follows:

During the marriage the parties acquired interest in realty as tenants by the entirety located at 630 Old Hickory Boulevard, West, Madison, Davidson County, Tennessee, and the husband in consideration of the premises hereby releases any right or interest he has in and to this property to the wife and if required agrees to execute a deed or document necessary to effect a transfer. The husband further relinquishes and gives to the wife all of the personal property, consisting of fixtures, furniture, equipment, clothing and other items of a personal nature owned by the parties to the wife.

The parties further acquired two cars during the marriage. The car normally used by the wife, being registered in her name, and the husband relinquishes any right to this car, and in consideration thereof the wife relinquishes and gives to the husband the car normally used by him.

During the marriage four children were born, two of which are no longer dependent upon the parties, however, there remains as dependent Ann Wynne, age 31, who is disabled, and Richard Howard Wynne, age 16, and the husband agrees to pay as child support during the continuation of the minority or disability of the children the sum of $50.00 per week.

The wife further relinquishes and waives all right to alimony, dower, or other claims of any nature to property of the husband.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the costs of this cause be assessed against the defendant.
