FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 11th day of September, 1973, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill for absolute divorce, personal service upon the Defendant, the pro confesso duly taken, and further upon testimony of the Complainant in open court, testimony of corroborating witnesses, statement of counsel, and upon the entire record, from all of which the court was of the opinion that Complainant's grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment had been sustained by the proof and that he should be awarded an absolute divorce. The court was further of the opinion that the custody of the minor children of the parties should be in the Complainant and that the Defendant have reasonable visitation rights but that upon visitations, that she should not be under the influence of any intoxicants. The court was further of the opinion that the house and lot and furniture and furnishings of the parties' should be granted to the Complainant.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Complainant, Edward Grizzard, be granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Jean Dorris Hayes Grizzard and that he be restored with all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between these parties be forever perpetually dissolved.

It is further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the minor children of the parties, namely Wayne Owen Grizzard, age 13, Karen Francine Grizzard, age 7, be committed for the care and custody of the Complainant, Edward Grizzard, and that Defendant have reasonable visitation privileges.

It is further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that when and if the Defendant, Jean Dorris Hayes Grizzard, exercises reasonable privileges concerning visitation with the minor children of the parties, that she exercise such visitation only with the specific notice to the Complainant and that she be enjoined from coming about the children at any time while under the influence of intoxicants of any nature.

It is further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that any right title and interest which Defendant may have heretofore had in the house and lot, furniture and furnishings therein, all at 2903 Snowden Road in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, be divested from her and all right, title and interest vested in the Complainant.

The costs of this cause are adjudicated against the Defendant for all of which let execution issue if necessary.
