JOEL L. REEVES,

Complainant and Counter-defendant

VS.

NO. 72850

DEBORAH LYNN HORN REEVES,

Defendant and Counter-complainant

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 9th day of September, 1974, before the Honorable James M. Swiggart, Judge, upon the counter-complaint, the sworn testimony of witnesses in open Court, and the record as a whole, from all of which it appeared that the counter-complainant is entitled to an absolute divorce on grounds of Cruel and Inhuman Treatment.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the counter-complainant be granted an absolute divorce from the counter-defendant, and that the parties be restored to all of the rights and privileges of unmarried persons;

2. That the custody of the parties' minor child be awarded to the counter-complainant;

3. That the counter-defendant shall pay to the counter-complainant $50.00 per week as child support, the first payment to be made September 14, 1974;

4. That all right, title and interest of the counter-defendant in the baby furniture, stereo and television set of the parties is vested out of him and vested in the counter-complainant;

5. That all right, title and interest of the counter-complainant in the household furniture of the parties, other than that awarded in Paragraph 4 above, together with the homeplace of the parties at 3522 Nebraska Avenue, more fully described as

Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 186 on the Plan of West Grove Subdivision, as of record in Book 421, page 109, Register's Office for said County, and described according to a survey made by Howell R. Swann, Surveyor, dated January 17, 1959, as follows:

Said Lot No. 186 fronts 50 feet on the northerly side of Nebraska Avenue; formerly Grand Avenue, and extends back between parallel lines 215 feet more or less, on the easterly line and 195 feet on the westerly line to a dead line in the rear, measuring 77 feet thereon.

Being the same property conveyed to Joel Leon Reeves and wife, Deborah Lynn Reeves, by deed from First American National Bank of Nashville, as of record in Book 4731, page 206, R.O.D.C.

is divested out of the counter-complainant and vested in the counter-defendant, but the counter-complainant is allowed to remain in said residence until September 21, 1974;

6. That the counter-defendant shall have the right to visit with the minor child of the parties on Saturdays from 8:00 A.M. until 5:00 P.M., but he shall not take the child away from the counter-complainant's residence if he has been drinking alcoholic beverages; if the counter-defendant is unable to exercise said rights and wishes to exercise them on another day during the week, he shall so notify the counter-complainant 24 hours in advance of that time or of his regular visitation time, as the case may be;

7. That the counter-complainant shall keep her attorney advised of her address to facilitate the counter-defendant's payment of child support and his exercise of visitation rights;

8. That the costs of this cause be taxed to the counter-defendant for which execution may issue.

ENTERED THIS 20th DAY OF September, 1974.
