ORDER

This cause came on to be heard on this the 6th day of November, 1974, before the Honorable Daniel D. Finch, Special Judge, upon the contempt petition filed by Freddie Le Vaughen Whittaker, testimony of Doris Anne Whittaker, statement of counsel, and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the respondent, Doris Anne Whittaker, is in technical violation of the orders of this court and therefore is in willful contempt but punishment is reserved and it is further the opinion of this court that the real proeprty owned by the parties should be divested from the respondent and vested absolutely and completely in fee simple in the petitioner, Freddie Le Vaughen Whittaker.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the respondent, Doris Anne Whittaker, is in technical contempt of the orders of this Court but punishment is hereby reserved;

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the respondent's interest in the real property owned by the parties be and the same is hereby divested and the full right, title and interest is vested completely and absolutely in fee simple in the petitioner, Freddie Le Vaughen Whittaker; said property being more specifically described as follows; to-wit:

Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 13 on the Plan of Franklin Heights at Goodlettsville, Tennessee, a plan of which is of record in Book 2083, Page 91, Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee.

Being the same property conveyed to Freddie L. Whittaker and wife, Doris J. Whittaker, by deed from Fred D. Wilson, et al, of record in Book 4489, Page 687, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

This divesture made pursuant to the final decree and property settlement agreement signed by the parties wherein the respondent, Doris Anne Whittaker agreed to sign all papers necessary to convey said house and lot to the husband and she having failed to do the same and continually refusing to do the same at this time.
