DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Harold E. Collins, Special Judge, Division IV of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on March 4, 1975, upon the original petition filed by the plaintiff, James Patton Hedrick, Jr., the answer and cross-petition of the cross-plaintiff, Faye Maze Hedrick, and the answer to the cross-petition. The original petition having been withdrawn prior to the hearing, the matter was considered by the Court on the cross-petition. Following the testimony of the cross-plaintiff, her corroborating witnesses, statement of counsel for both parties, and the entire record in this cause, the Court was of the opinion that the cross-plaintiff did successfully sustain her grounds for divorce, that is, that the cross-defendant has abandoned her or turned her out-of-doors, and has failed, neglected or refused to provide for her.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the cross-plaintiff, Faye Maze Hedrick, is awarded an absolute divorce from the cross-defendant, James Patton Hedrick, Jr., and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are forever and perpetually dissolved. Cross-plaintiff is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the absolute care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Elonia Hedrick, is vested in the cross-plaintiff, Faye Maze Hedrick, with the right and privilege of the cross-defendant to see and visit said aforementioned child at all reasonable times and places. As support for said aforementioned child, the cross-defendant will pay to the cross-plaintiff the sum of $150.00 per month, payable directly to the cross-plaintiff by appropriate check or money order, with the responsibility being placed upon the cross-defendant to keep an adequate record of said aforementioned payments. Said payments shall be made on or before the 15th day of each month, subsequent to this decree, and for that particular month, with the first payment being due on March 15, 1975, and for the month of March, 1975, and on the 15th of each month thereafter, pending further orders of the Court. In addition thereto, the cross-defendant will at all times, and until further orders of the Court, maintain hospitalization and medical insurance on said aforementioned minor child.

It further appearing to the Court that the cross-defendant is now in arrears on certain support payments heretofore ordered by the Court, and for monies expended by cross-plaintiff for the support of said child pending the litigation, it is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the cross-plaintiff have and recover of the cross-defendant a judgment in the amount of $1,000.00, provided, however, that said judgment may be paid by the cross-defendant to the cross-plaintiff at the rate of $25.00 per month, and payable in the same manner and on the same date as the child support payments hereinabove set forth. Said payments for the arrearage shall continue on a monthly basis as aforementioned until said judgment is completely eradicated.

As alimony in solido, all of cross-defendant's right, title and interest in and to the home of the parties located at 223 Townes Drive, as is now vested in the cross-defendant, James Patton Hedrick, Jr., shall be divested out of said aforementioned cross-defendant, and awarded absolutely to the cross-plaintiff, Faye Maze Hedrick. Said property shall hereinafter be vested in the cross-plaintiff, Faye Maze Hedrick, in fee simple. Said property is more particularly described as follows:

> BEING Lot No. 132 on the Plan of Fair Oaks Subdivision, Section 2, of record in Book 4460, pages 52 and 53, Register's Office, Davidson County, Tennessee.

> BEING the same property conveyed to James P. Hedrick, Jr., et ux, Faye Hedrick, by deed from Gardner Construction Co., Inc., of record in Book 4716, page 874, Register's Office, Davidson County, Tennessee.

In addition thereto, all of cross-defendant's right, title and interest in and to the household furnishings located at said aforementioned property as is now vested in the cross-defendant shall be divested from cross-defendant, and said furnishings shall be awarded absolutely to the cross-plaintiff.

As additional alimony, the cross-defendant will pay to Jack Norman, Jr., solicitor for the cross-plaintiff, the sum of $300.00 as his reasonable fee for services rendered the cross-plaintiff in this cause. Said fee shall be paid in full on or before the expiration of ninety (90) days from the date of the entry of this decree.
