STERLING DALE LORANCE )

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 12th day of October, 1972 before the Honorable Roy Miles, Jr., sitting as Special Judge for Part IV of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of divorce, pro confesso entered, witnesses examined in open court and upon the entire record in this cause.

From all of which it appears that the grounds for cruel and inhuman treatment have been adequately sustained by clear, competent and cogent proof, and that the complainant is entitled to an absolute divorce.

It further appears to the Court that the defendant should pay the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per week child support and said payments should commence no later than Friday, October 13, 1972 and to continue until further orders of this Court.

It further appears that the defendant should continue to pay the Nine ($9.00) Dollars weekly thrift plan to DuPont for the education of his children.

It further appears that the defendant should continue to pay the health insurance and keep the same in full force with DuPont, pending further orders of this Court.

It further appears that the defendant should pay the complainant's solicitor of record, H. Tom Kittrell, the sum of Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars for the services rendered to the complainant in this cause.

It appears to the Court that the defend ant is One Hundred

Twenty ($120.00) Dollars in the arrears and that the complainant should have a judgment against the defendant in this amount.

It further appears to the Court that a great deal of the problem of the parties grew out of the visitation of the children with the defendant in his taking the children around a woman by the name of Regina Seabolt. The Court feels that the defendant should be permanently enjoined from carrying the children around Regina Seabolt, however, he is afforded reasonable visitation privileges with the children so long as he does not expose them to the company of Regina Seabolt.

It further appears to the Court that the complainant should have any and all equity which the defendant may have in the house and lot located at 355 Lanier Drive, Madison, Tennessee, more particular described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being the northerly 30 feet of Lot No. 2 and the southerly 30 feet of Lot No. 3, Block "F", on the Revised Map of Rainbow Terrace Subdivision, as of record in Book 1130, page 85, Register's Office for said County.
> Said parts of said lots adjoin and front together 60 feet on the southeasterly side of Lanier Drive and run back between parallel lines 150 feet to a dead line.

It further appears to the Court that the complainant shall have any and all equity which the defendant may have in the household goods and furnishings located at 355 Lanier Drive, Madison, Tennessee.

It further appears to the Court that the complainant shall return the Shell Oil Company Credit Card to the defendant.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, good cause having been shown that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant, Judy Gale Hunt Lorance and the defendant, Sterling Dale Lorance, are forever dissolved, and that the complainant be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant shall pay the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per week child support and said payments should commence no later than Friday, October 13, 1972 and to continue until further orders of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant is One hundred Twenty ($120.00) Dollars in the arrears and that the complainant shall have ajudgment against the defendant in this amount.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that a great deal of the problem of the parties grew out of the visitation of the children with the defendant in his taking the children around a woman by the name of Regina Seabolt and the Court feels that the defendant should be permanently enjoined from carrying the children around REgina Seabolt, however, he is afforded reasonable visitation privileges with the children so long as he does not expose them to the company of Regina Seabolt. RRB Should the defendant become validly married to the said Regina Seabolt this injunction will become null and void.
