FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 19th day of May, 1975, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on the contested divorce docket, and the parties having compromised their differences, the cause was placed for hearing on the uncontested docket for trial. And it appearing to the Court that one of plaintiff's witnesses was unavoidably detained because of illness in the family, the Court allowed this cause to be submitted by means of interrogatories. After consideration of said interrogatories of plaintiff and her two corroborating witnesses, and the entire record in the cause, the Court is of the opinion that plaintiff's grounds for divorce have been substantiated, i.e., that the defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards her as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to be under his dominion and control;
