IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

MAUDE HAZEL WILLIAMS
COMPLAINANT

vs. NO. 52231

SHELBY DEAN WILLIAMS, SR.
DEFENDANT

FINAL DECREE OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause came on to be finally heard this 3 day of May, 1968, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, holding the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the deposition by interrogatories of the complainant and witnesses, the pro confesso entered against the defendant, and the entire record, from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the statutory grounds for divorce alleged in complainant's bill are true and that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper, and further, that the defendant has abandoned the complainant or turned her out of doors and refused and neglected to provide for her; and further, that the complainant should have exclusive custody and control of the minor children of the parties with a right of visitation being granted to the defendant on either Saturday or Sunday of each week, whichever will be better suitable for the parties and whichever is better suitable for the defendant's working schedule; and further, that the defendant will pay maintenance and support for the minor children of the parties in the sum of $55.00 per week, and defendant will pay the balance due to American Credit Company on a loan secured by the furniture; and further, that a certain division of personal property as hereinafter set forth will be ordered; and further, that the defendant is not to interfere with the maintenance and support of complainant's home.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be in the same as hereby dissolved, and the parties are vested of all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

That the complainant, Maude Hazel Williams, is granted exclusive custody and control of the minor children of the patties with visitation privileges being awarded to the defendant on either a Saturday or Sunday of each week, whichever is better suitable to the defendant's working schedule.

Complainant is awarded the sum of $55.00 per week for the maintenance and support of said minor children; and complainant's attorney, James A. Carney, is awarded an attorney fee in the sum of $75.00 which is made a judgment against the defendant; and the complainant is awarded full title and interest to that certain real property located at 316 Oakview Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, described as follows:

> Being Lot No. 20 on the Plan of Sky View Subdivision, as of record in Book 2331, pages 54 and 55, Register's Office for said County.
> Said Lot No. 20 fronts 130 feet on the southwesterly side of Oakview Drive and extends back 330.5 feet on the southeasterly line and 445.2 feet on the northwesterly line which is a broken line to a dead line measuring 233.7 feet thereon.

Complainant will assume the entire balance due on the first and second mortgages on said property.

The defendant, Shelby Dean Williams, Sr., is herewith awarded a green covered maple rocking chair, a collection of glassware, a wood-burning cook stove, and also a walnut china cabinet, providing he pays the unpaid balance which is charged to both parties on said walnut china cabinet, and also a miscellaneous assortment of walnut lumber. The defendant is further ordered to pay the entire balance due to American Credit Company, which is a lien against all of the furniture of the parties.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the defendant is not to interfere with the maintenance of the complainant's home.

All costs of this cause will be adjudged against the defendant for all of which execution may issue if necessary.
