Warrick, their ~~successors~~ heirs and assigns forever. We covenant that we are lawfully seized and possessed of said real estate in fee simple, have a good right to convey it, and that the same is unencumbered., except as noted above.

We further covenant and bind ourselves, our heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to said real estate to said Howard E. Warrick and wife, Nina A. Warrick, their ~~successors~~ heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons.

And now, for the purpose of better and more effectually securing the payment of said lien indebtedness; rendering unnecessary court proceedings for the enforcement of said lien in the event of the non-payment of said indebtedness and installments thereof, as they mature, as hereinafter provided, and for the consideration of one dollar paid in cash, receipt of which is acknowledged, the said Howard E. Warrick and wife, Nina A. Warrick, hereinafter referred to as trustors, hereby transfer and convey unto Dewey W. But if said indebtedness, or any installment thereof, or interest thereon, is not paid promptly at maturity, or if, failing to pay taxes, keep up repairs or keep said premises insured, or pay said other sums when due, as herein provided, trustors fail to reimburse the trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness for all sums, with interest, so expended by said trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness, within thirty days from date of such payment, this trust conveyance shall remain in full force and effect, and at the option of the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness then past due and unpaid, all remaining unpaid indebtedness, and installments thereof, shall become due and payable at once, without notice, and the said trustee, or his successor in trust, is hereby authorized and empowered, upon giving twenty days' notice by three publications in any newspaper, daily or weekly, published in Davidson County, Tennessee, to sell said property at the front door of the Court House in said County to the highest bidder for cash, at public outcry, free from the equity of redemption, homestead, dower and all other exemptions of every kind, which are hereby expressly waived; and the said trustee, or his successor in trust, is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser. The creditor may bid at any sale under this trust conveyance. It is further agreed that, in the event the trustee fails, before selling said property, as herein provided, to enter and take possession thereof, the purchaser shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof upon the delivery to him by the trustee of a deed for said property. In case of sale hereunder, the proceeds will be applied by the trustee as follows:

1st. To the payment of all costs, charges and expenses of executing this conveyance and enforcing said lien as herein provided; also reasonable attorney's fees for advice in the premises, or for instituting or defending any litigation which may arise on account of the execution of this conveyance, or the enforcement of said lien; also the expenses of any such litigation.
