FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Hon. Richard P. Dews, Judge of the First Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on February 21, 1947, upon the original bill filed against the defendant in this cause and order of pro confesso heretofore entered in the cause. And from the pleadings in the case, oral testimony heard in open court, and argument of counsel, the Court was of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill were fully sustained by the evidence, that is, that the defendant, Robert W. Wilson, had wilfully and maliciously without any reasonable cause or provocation, abandoned and deserted the complainant and absented himself from her for more than two whole years, and that he had abandoned her, or turned her out of doors and failed, refused and neglected to provide for her.
