IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

CARRIE C. JONES
Complainant

vs. No. 60408

WILLIAM O. JONES
Defendant

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard upon the pleadings, the testimony of principals, the testimony of witnesses, the submission of briefs and the entire record herein from all of which the court is of the opinion and finds that the plaintiff Carrie C. Jones should be awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant William O. Jones on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The custody of the minor child is awarded to the plaintiff with reasonable visitation rights awarded to the defendant.

There being no pendente lite order for child support, proper action may be taken by the plaintiff therefor.

Regarding the property of the parties, all right, title and interest now held by Carrie C. Jones in and to the property located at 4201 West Hamilton Road should be divested from her and reinvested in the defendant William O. Jones in fee simple. In regard to the jointly owned property at 1817 Eleventh Avenue North, such property should be sold and the equities divided equally by and between the parties.

Any interest that the plaintiff might have in the 1969 Cadillac now being driven by the defendant should be divested from her and reinvested in the defendant to be his in fee simple title.

All other properties should be and become the sole property of the plaintiff Carrie C. Jones with no resulting interest therein insofar as the defendant is concerned.

In regard to fees for plaintiff's solicitor of record, such solicitor is awarded the fee of _____, such fee to be paid by the defendant. The court accordingly orders and finds that the facts charged in plaintiff's bill are true, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the plaintiff as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper and renders it further unsafe and improper for her to be under his dominion and control. Accordingly it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the parties be absolutely and forever dissolved and that plaintiff be vested with all the rights of an unmarried woman.

Costs of the cause are taxed to the defendant for which execution may issue if necessary.

In view of the delay in the preparation of this decree, said decree shall be entered nunc pro tunc.

vs. No. 60408

WILLIAM O. JONES

Defendant

O R D E R

This cause came on to be heard on this the 21st day of August, 1975 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, upon plaintiff's motion, filed July 3, 1975, for reconsideration alleging that the final decree, entered July 1, 1975, contravened T.C.A. 36-824 in that it failed to award homestead rights in the homeplace at 4201 West Hamilton Road, Nashville, Tennessee to plaintiff and upon her death to the minor child David Jones.

Upon review of the file, the Court is of the opinion and finds that the movant Carrie C. Jones is entitled to her homestead insofar as the real property in question is concerned.

IT IS, ACCORDINGLY, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated 36-824 the title of the aforesaid property is and accordingly shall be vested in Carrie C. Jones for life, and upon her death to the minor child of the parties, David Jones.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall pay plaintiff the sum of $35.00 per week as and for the support of the minor child of the parties.

On consideration of all other matters concerned in the motion, the Court is of the opinion that they should respectfully be denied and it is so ordered.
