NO. 71754

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 18th day of March 1974, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original complaint for absolute divorce, personal service thereto, upon the testimony of the Plaintiff and corroborating witnesses in Open Court, upon the Court's examination of the property settlement agreement, statement of counsel, and upon the entire record, from all of which the Court was of the opinion that Plaintiff had fully proved the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and that he should be awarded a divorce from the Defendant. The Court was further of the opinion that the custody should best with the Plaintiff and that the property settlement agreement should be approved. The Court was further of the opinion that based upon the testimony and upon the entire record, the Defendant should pay child support to the Plaintiff.

It is, therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that BERTRAND W. RUSSELL be awarded an absolute divorce from MARIAN D. RUSSELL and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties are now and forever dissolved.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Plaintiff should have the full right, custody and control of the four minor children of the parties, namely, ROBIN, KERRY, DANA, and MELANIE.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant should pay directly to the Plaintiff the sum of ONE HUNDRED and 00/100 ($100.00) DOLLARS per month as child support.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the entire property settlement agreement entered into between the parties dated November 28, 1973, shall be and hereby is, approved by the Court, said property settlement reading as follows:

"WHEREAS, Bertrand W. Russell, hereinafter referred to as Husband, and Marian D. Russell, hereinafter referred to as Wife, presently have pending in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, a suit for divorce and,

WHEREAS, the parties feel that there is no way in which their marital differences can be reconciled, and

WHEREAS, the parties are desirous of entering into an agreement, subject to the Court's approval, for the purpose of determining the property rights of the parties and the custody rights of the parties with their minor children in the event the Court finds that a divorce should be granted to the Plaintiff, Husband, and

WHEREAS, Husband and Wife have fully and completely come to terms with regard to the division of the jointly held property and their respective rights in said property, and have also agreed upon custody of the minor children of the parties,

NOW THEREFORE, WITNESSETH THE FOLLOWING AGREEMENT:

1. Husband will assume all of the debts of the parties and will pay in cash to the Wife the sum of Two Thousand Four Hundred Sixty Two and 50/100 ($2,462.50) Dollars, and in return therefore, the Wife, through the decree of divorce, will convey any and all real estate of the parties to the Husband and will relinquish any and all ownership in any personal property items belonging to either of the parties or to both of them, which are not hereinafter specifically set out as going to the Wife.
