FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Thomas O. H. Smith, Jr., Special Judge, on December 21, 1972, on the original complaint for divorce, the pro confesso heretofore taken, testimony in open Court and from the entire record in the cause. From all of which the Court is of the opinion that the plaintiff, Elizabeth R. Gill, is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant, Murrell A. Gill, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the plaintiff, Elizabeth R. Gill, be awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, Murrell A. Gill, and restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties have agreed on the following as evidenced by the signature of respective counsel appearing below,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT THAT:

1. All right, title and interest of the defendant in and to the real estate now owned by the parties as tenants by the entireties located at 1131 Greenfield

Avenue, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, along with the furniture and fixtures therein, be and hereby is divested out of the defendant and vested in the plaintiff to be her property absolutely. The plaintiff will be responsible for making the payments on the first mortgage and all utilities.

2. All right, title and interest in and to the 1972 Volkswagen Bus now owned jointly by the parties be and hereby is divested out of the defendant and vested in the plaintiff to be her property absolutely.

3. The care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties shall be and hereby is vested in the plaintiff, Elizabeth R. Gill, with reasonable visitation rights reserved to the defendant, Murrell A. Gill.

4. The defendant will pay to the plaintiff a reasonable sum each week as child support for the minor child of the parties.

ENTER this ___ day of January, 1973.
