FINAL DECREE OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 1st day of February, 1971, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, upon the original bill for absolute divorce, the separation agreement entered into between the parties on July 9th, 1970, personal service of process upon the defendant, the pro confesso entered in the cause, the testimony of the complainant and his witnesses in open court, and the entire record in the cause. The cause was taken under advisement for the subsequent filing of a deposition. From all of the foregoing, the court is of the opinion that the complainant has adequately proved his grounds for divorce, namely, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper. The court is further of the opinion that the terms of the separation agreement are fair and reasonable, that the same should be approved by the court, and that the terms thereof should be incorporated in this final decree to the extent that they have not already been carried out.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the complainant, John Noah Wilson, be, and he is hereby, awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant Evelyn Ruth Farley Wilson. The bonds of matrimony uniting the parties are perpetually dissolved, and the complainant is freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the separation agreement entered into between the parties on July 9th, 1970, is hereby approved by the court and made a portion of the decree of this court as follows.

The household furnishings, television, and automobile now in the possession of the defendant are declared to belong to her, absolutely, without any claim by the complainant.

The Investors' Mutual bonds owned by the parties jointly shall henceforth belong absolutely to the defendant, with all right, title and interest of the complainant divested out of the said bonds, and with the obligation on the defendant to complete paying the balance owed upon the said bonds.

All right, title and interest of the complainant in the house and lot of the parties at 1118 Ardee Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, is divested out of the complainant and vested absolutely in the defendant, with the defendant to assume all payments upon the mortgage to First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

By mutual agreement of the parties, the house and lot owned by them at 232 54th Avenue, North, Nashville, Tennessee, is divested out of the parties and vested absolutely in their daughter, Judy W. McConnell, who will assume the mortgage thereon to First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The land owned by the parties as tenants by the entireties in Cumberland County, Tennessee, being the same property conveyed to them by deed from Blanche Bristow, of record in Deed Book 88, pages 219-220, Register's Office for Cumberland County, Tennessee, shall be vested hereafter solely in the complainant, John Noah Wilson, and all right, title and interest of the defendant, Evelyn Ruth Farley Wilson, in and to the said property shall be absolutely and forever divested out of her. The complainant shall assume the first mortgage to Mrs. Bristow, and the second mortgage to J. N. Underwood.

Any insurance policies on the life of complainant shall belong to him absolutely, and any rights of the defendant therein are divested from her.

All right, title and interest of the defendant, Evelyn Ruth Farley Wilson, in and to shares of stock owned by the parties in Greater Tennessee Corporation are hereby divested out of her and vested absolutely in the complainant.

Any other properties in the possession of the respective parties are declared to belong to the party in possession absolutely, without any claim being made by the other party.

The costs of this cause are taxed to the defendant, for which execution may issue if necessary.
