KARMA GWENDOLYN DUNKERLEY, Defendant and Cross-complainant

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 8th day of April, 1975, before the Honorable Tom Proctor, sitting as Special Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, answer and cross-bill filed by the defendant, and cross-complainant, answer of the cross-defendant, but the original complainant and cross-defendant, offering no proof, testimony of cross-complainant and witnesses examined in open Court, statement of counsel and the entire record in the cause, from all of which it appeared to the Court that the allegation contained in cross-complainant's bill has been sustained by the proof, and that the cross-defendant, Allen Dunkerley, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the cross-complainant as would render further cohabitation between the parties unsafe and improper for her to longer remain under his dominion and control, and that the cross-complainant should be granted an absolute divorce from the cross-defendant;

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, and the cross-complainant is awarded an absolute divorce from the cross-defendant, and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED that the cross-complainant, the mother, have the exclusive care, custody and control of the parties' minor children, Lori Jean Dunkerley and William Allen Dunkerley. The cross-defendant, the father, shall have visitation with the minor children; to-wit: every other week-end, commencing on Friday, at 6:00 P.M., until Sunday evening, and said week-end visitation shall begin with the week-end beginning Friday, April 11, 1975; the cross-defendant shall have visitation with the minor children on alternate holidays; the cross-defendant shall have the minor children for one week during the Christmas vacation period; and, in addition thereto, the cross-defendant shall have the minor children for two (2) weeks during the summer vacation. It is further ORDERED that the cross-defendant, on Saturday of the week-end he exercises his visitation privileges, take the children to, and pick the children up from, church services at World Wide Church of God, known as the East Church of Nashville, Tennessee.

It is further ORDERED that the cross-defendant, Allen Dunkerley, pay to the cross-complainant, Martha Gwendolyn Dunkerley, the sum of $70.00 per week, and in addition thereto, the cross-defendant shall pay the monthly house note, all utilities, including water, telephone and electricity, and shall purchase all necessary clothing and wearing apparel for the minor children, and shall maintain a sick and accident policy covering the two minor children, and shall furnish to the cross-complainant evidence of such insurance policy; said payments are to commence on Friday, April 11, 1975, for the support and maintenance of the parties' minor children, and shall continue until further orders of the Court.

It is ORDERED that all right, title and interest of the cross-defendant in and to the 1967 Chevrolet automobile presently located at the home of the parties, be and the same is hereby divested out of the cross-defendant and same is vested solely in the cross-complainant, Martha Gwendolyn Dunkerley.

It is further ORDERED that all right, title and interest of the cross-defendant in and to the home of the parties, located at street address number 4424 Brick Church Pike, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, together with all household furniture, furnishings, goods, appliances and all else located in and around the home, be and the same is hereby divested out of the cross-defendant and same is vested solely in the cross-complainant, Martha Gwendolyn Dunkerley.

It is further ORDERED that the cross-defendant, Allen Dunkerley, pay to DAVID J. LEVINE, Attorney, the sum of $250.00 as his reasonable attorney's fee for services rendered the cross-complainant in this cause.

The cross-defendant shall pay the costs of the cause, and for all of the above, let execution issue if necessary.
