It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff, Lydia Nancy McClure Quillen, is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Charles William Quillen, and she is restored to all rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED by the Court that the property settlement agreement heretofore entered into by and between the parties be made a part of this final decree of divorce. Said property settlement agreement is in words and figures as follows:

1. The Wife shall have custody and control of the parties' minor child, Christopher Lee, age 2½ years, and the Husband shall have reasonable visitation rights.

2. The Wife shall receive all the household furniture and furnishings except the Husband shall have the television and air conditioners, and the Wife shall be allowed to move said furniture and furnishings to Georgia.

3. The Husband shall be responsibile for all medical and dental bills incurred by the minor child of the parties, Christopher Lee.

4. The Husband shall retain the possession and control of the house and lot known as 187 Luna Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, and the Wife's interest in said property shall be divested from her and vested in the Husband. The Husband shall assume all indebtedness on said property and release the Wife of any obligation thereof.

5. The Husband shall retain possession of the 1972 Oldsmobile Cutlass automobile and the Husband shall assume all indebtedness on said automobile and releases the Wife of any obligation thereof.

6. The Husband and Wife shall each pay one-half of the bill at Belks Company, and all other debts of the parties shall be assumed by the Husband.

7. The Husband shall pay to the Wife the sum of $100 per month beginning April 1, 1976 and each and every thereafter as child support for the minor child of the parties.

The defendant, Charles William Quillen, shall pay the costs of this cause.
