CHARLIE MARION TEAGUE )

J U D G M E N T

This complaint came on to be heard before the Honorable J. William Rutherford, Judge, on the 14th day of July, 1976, on the original complaint of the plaintiff, the default judgment heretofore taken and entered against the defendant and the oral testimony of witnesses examined in open court, from all of which it appears to the Court that the facts alleged in the complaint are true; that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards the plaintiff so as to render further cohabitation between the parties unsafe and improper. It is, therefore, accordingly, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

It further appears to the Court that the parties have heretofore entered into an agreement for the disposition of all property owned by them and for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the parties, which agreement has been introduced in evidence as an exhibit to this complaint, and it appearing to the Court that the terms thereof are fair and equitable, the Court hereby ratifies and approves said agreement and incorporates the same herein as a part of the judgment of the Court, and in accordance therewith, it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the custody of the minor child of the parties, Tanya Laraye Teague, is committed to the plaintiff. The defendant shall pay as child support directly to the plaintiff the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per week, and such payment shall be due and payable on Friday of each week.

The defendant shall have the right and privilege of visiting with such child between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on each Sunday, such visits to begin from and after the date of the entry of this judgment provided, however, that in the event the defendant may not desire to visit with said child on any particular Sunday, he shall give the plaintiff at least twelve (12) hours notice that he will not visit said child.

The Court finds that the parties are presently possessed of a house and lot described as follows:

> The same being Lot No. 121 on the plan of Apachee Hills Section III, as of record in Book 4175, Page 9, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, to which reference is hereby made for a more complete description by meets and bounds.

In accordance with the agreement of the parties, it is accordingly,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all of the defendant's right, title and interest in and to the above described property be, and the same hereby is, divested out of him and vested in the plaintiff, Gypsy Dare Teague.

It further appears to the Court that said property is presently encumbered with a mortgage and it is further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff assume all the outstanding indebtedness against said property as secured by said mortgage.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all of the right, title and interest in and to all furniture, household furnishings, fixtures, appliances, supplies and utensils of whatever kind or nature of which the parties are now possessed, shall be vested in the plaintiff except for the following items, to wit: one R.C.A. color television, Model XL 100; one mahogany bookcase; one snare drum; one banjo; one rod, reel and tackle box and tools located in basement of house; one metal workbench (portable); one rocking chair; one Chevrolet motor; one weed eater.

All the right, title and interest in and to the personal property above specifically set forth is vested in the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all bills and indebtedness of whatever nature currently outstanding between the parties and incurred by them, either individually or jointly, prior to May 1, 1976, shall be assumed by the defendant.

The costs of this action are assessed against the defendant and for which execution will issue if necessary.

Enter this 12th day of July, 1976.
