Sue Mae Parker

vs. #26711

Silas Aubrey Parker and National Cemetary Service Inc.

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Richard P. Dews, Judge of the First Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the petition of the complainant Sue Mae Parker, a pro confesso having been taken against the defendant, Silas Aubrey Parker, together with proof in open Court from all of which the Court is pleased to find as follows:

that the complainant has made out the charges in her bill and that the defendant has abandoned her and turned her out of doors and has refused and neglected to provide for her, said abandonment having taken place in February of 1955. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be dissolved and for naught held, and the complainant is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Barbara Ann Parker be awarded to the complainant, with the right of the defendant to see and visit said child at reasonable times and places.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that all the right title and interest in and to the house and lot on Lot No. 21 on the Plan of Hidden Acres as of record in Book 1130 page 89, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, now vested in the defendant be divested out of him and vested in the complainant, Sue Mae Parker, said property located on Haverford Drive, Nashville, Tennessee.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the complainant is to have all the household furnishings and furniture which the parties own at this time and all the right, title and interest in and to the said household furnishings be divested out of the defendant and vested in the complainant.

It is further ordered that all monies due the husband, Silas Aubrey Parker, from the National Cemetary Service Inc., and the National Cemetary Service Company, shall be and become the property of Mrs. Sue Mae Parker and will be paid direct to her.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the defendant pay to the complainant, the sum of $100.00 per month for the support of the minor child of the parties, Barbara Ann Parker until further orders of the Court.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the said Silas Aubrey Parker is to have title to the automobile which is owned by these parties and is now in the possession of Silas Aubrey Parker.

The defendant will pay the costs of this cause for which let execution issue.
