RUTH [illegible] CRAIG	)
	)	IN THE FIRST CIRCUIT COURT FOR
VS.	)	DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
	)
JAMES THOMAS CRAIG	)	NO. 78434

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 7th day of July, 1975, before the Hon. J. William Rutherford, Judge of the First Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the complaint for absolute divorce filed by the plaintiff, judgment by default entered against the defendant, testimony of witnesses introduced and examined in open Court and upon the entire record.

From all of which the Court finds that the defendant was duly before the Court by personal service of process and that the allegations contained in the complaint have been sustained by the proof. That the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment toward plaintiff as renders further co-habitation improper and unsafe and that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant. The Court further finds that all interest which the defendant has in the household furniture and furnishings owned by the parties as well as the house and lot owned by the parties as tenants by the entireties on Flicker Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, should be divested out of defendant and into plaintiff.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court that the plaintiff be and hereby is awarded an absolute divorce against the defendant. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all right, title and interest in and to the household furniture and furnishings owned by the parties and the real property owned by the parties, hereinafter described, be and the same hereby is divested out of defendant and into plaintiff constituting her sole and separate property free from the marital interest of the defendant.
