FINAL JUDGMENT

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original complaint for divorce heretofore filed by plaintiff, default judgment heretofore taken, written interrogatories of Donna Jean Brown Gammon, Donna Hare, and Frances Kennamore, and upon the entire record in this cause. From all of which the Court is of the opinion that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards your plaintiff as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and contro;

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person. It further appears to the Court that the parties, through and by counsel, have entered into the following property settlement agreement:

> This Agreement made and entered into at Madison, Tennessee, on this the _____ day of November, 1974, by and between DONNA JEAN BROWN GAMMON, hereinafter called the Wife, and JERRY THOMAS GAMMON, hereinafter called the Husband;
>
> WITNESSETH:
>
> That whereas the parties are man and wife and serious marital problems have arisen and the differences are such between the parties as a reconciliation is impossible and desiring to settle their property rights subject to approval of the Court, the parties agree as follows:
>
> 1. The Husband is to receive the 1973 Oldsmobile Cutlass automobile and title to same shall be vested solely in his name.

RECORDER'S MEMO:
Legibility of Writing, Typing or Printing in This Document Unsatisfactory When Received.

2. The Husband is to receive the Antique bed that is now in the home of the parties.

3. The Wife is to receive the 1962 Buick Electra 225 automobile and title to same shall be vested solely in her name.

4. The Wife is to receive all of the household furnishings and furniture owned by the parties with the exception of the Antique bed mentioned in Paragraph 2.

5. The Wife is to receive the house and lot located at 206 West Monticello Avenue, Goodlettsville, Tennessee. The Husband shall maintain the house until such time as the Wife remarries.

6. The Wife is to have the custody of the minor children of the parties with visitation rights granted to the Husband on his scheduled days off from work every other weekend. In the event of any change in the above visitation, the Husband shall give the Wife 24 hours notice of the changes.

7. The Husband shall pay the sum of $200.00 per month as child support for the support and maintenance of the parties' minor children, and pay all drug and doctor bills.

8. The Husband and Wife respectively are to retain all of their personal property consisting of jewelry and other similar personal items.

Both parties understand that this Agreement is subject to the approval of the Court in the event that a divorce is granted to either party. However, in the event that a divorce is not granted to either party or the parties reconcile, this Agreement shall be of no force and effect. If approved by the Court, the said Agreement is a full, final and complete settlement of the property rights as between the parties and the same is entered into without any collusion between the parties, but solely of their own free will and accord.
