S. Department of Interior.

(3) The exterior architectural and structural integrity of the building shall be preserved, and any future maintenance, restoration, repairs or any actions affecting the exterior of the structure shall be accomplished in such manner as to be authentic historically and architecturally.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said property, together with all and singular the appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and all the estate, right, title, interest or claim whatsoever of the said party of the first part, either in law or in equity, subject to the exceptions, reservations, restrictions, conditions and covenants herein expressed and set out, to the only proper use, benefit and behoof of the said party of the second part, forever.

The property hereby conveyed has heretofore been declared surplus to the needs of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, is presently under the jurisdiction of the General Services Administration, is available for disposal and its disposal has been heretofore authorized by the Administrator of General Services, acting pursuant to the above referred to laws, regulations and orders.

IT IS AGREED AND UNDERSTOOD by and between the party of the first part and the party of the second part and the party of the second part by its acceptance of this Deed, does acknowledge its understanding of the agreement, and does covenant and agree for itself, and its successors and assigns, forever, as follows:

1. The property shall be forever used and maintained as and for an historical monument and for those purposes only in accordance with the application and approved program of preservation and utilization hereinbefore referred to. Said program of preservation and utilization may be amended from time to time at the request of either the grantee or the United States of America, with the written concurrence of the other party, and such amendment shall be added to and become a part of the aforesaid approved program of preservation and utilization.

2. From the date of this conveyance, the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, shall file biennial reports with the Secretary, of the Interior, setting forth the use of the property during the preceding two-year period, and other pertinent data establishing its continuous use of the premises for the purposes set forth above.

3. Other than as provided for in the approved "Program of Preservation and Utilization", the party of the second part will not sell, lease, assign, or otherwise dispose of any of the premises above described, except to another local government agency that the Secretary of the Interior is satisfied can assure the continued use and maintenance of the property as and for an historic monument.

4. The party of the first part shall have the right during the existence of any national emergency declared by the President of the United States of America, or the Congress thereof, to the full unrestricted possession, control and use of the premises, or any part thereof, without charge: EXCEPT that the party of the first part shall be responsible during the period of such use, if occurring within a period of twenty (20) years from the date of this conveyance, for the entire cost of maintaining the premises, or any portion thereof, so used, and shall pay a fair rental for the use of any installations or structures which have been added thereto without Federal aid; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if such use is required after the expiration of a period of twenty (20) years from the date of this conveyance, the party of the first part shall pay a fair rental for the entire portion of the premises so used.

5. That, as part of the consideration for this Deed, the party of the second part covenants and agrees for itself, its successors and assigns, that (1) the program for or in connection with which this Deed is made will be conducted in compliance with, and the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, will comply with, all requirements imposed by or pursuant to the regulations of the General Services Administration as in effect on the date of this Deed (41 CFR Subpart 101-6.2) issued under the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; (2) this covenant shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of said regulations; (3) the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, will promptly take and continue to take such action as may be necessary to effectuate this covenant; (4) the United States shall have the right to seek judicial enforcement of this covenant, and (5) the party of the second part, its successors and assigns will (a) obtain from each other person (any legal entity) who, through contractual or other arrangements with the party of the second part, its successors or assigns, is authorized to provide services or benefits under said program, a written agreement pursuant to which such other person shall, with respect to the services or benefits which he is authorized to provide, undertake for himself the same obligations as those imposed upon the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, by this covenant, and (b) furnish the original of such agreement to the Secretary of the Interior, or his successors, upon his request therefor; and that this covenant shall run with the land hereby conveyed, and shall in any event, without regard to technical classification or designation, legal or otherwise, be binding to the fullest extent permitted by law and equity for the benefit of, and in favor of the party of the first part and enforceable by the party of the first part against the party of the second part, its successors and assigns.

6. In the event there is a breach of any of the conditions and covenants herein contained by the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, whether caused by the legal inability of the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, to perform said conditions and covenants, or otherwise, all right, title and interest in and to the said premises shall revert to and become the property of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA at its option, and it shall have the immediate right of entry upon said premises, and the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, shall forfeit all right, title and interest in said premises and in any and all of the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging.

7. In the event of a breach of any condition or covenant herein imposed, the Secretary of the Interior may immediately enter and possess himself of title to the hereinconveyed premises for and on behalf of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

8. In the event of a breach of any condition or covenant herein imposed, the party of the second part will, upon demand by the Secretary of the Interior, take such action, including the prosecution of suit, or execute such instruments as may be necessary or required to evidence transfer of title to the hereinconveyed premises to the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

9. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the failure of the Secretary of Interior to require in any one or more instances complete performance of any of the conditions or covenants herein contained shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of such future performance, but the obligation of the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, with respect to such future performance shall continue in full force and effect.

10. That at such time as the building situated on the above described property is demolished, any Document Box which should be located behind the cornerstone shall remain the property of the party of the first part and shall be delivered unopened to the National Archives and Records Service, Washington, D. C.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the party of the first part has caused these presents to be executed in its name and on its behalf this the day and year first above written.
