Petition of the Plaintiff, Denise Allen Womack, for an Absolute Divorce, answer of the Defendant, Donald Eugene Womack, testimony of the Plaintiff and her witnesses heard in open Court and testimony of the Defendant, statement of counsel and the entire record herein, from all of which the Court is of the opinion and finds that the allegation that the Defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the Plaintiff as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to be under his dominion and control has been fully sustained by the proof and the Plaintiff should be granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant, restoring her to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, including the restoration of her previous married name, Seigenthaler.

The Court is further of the opinion that the Plaintiff, Denise Allen Womack, will supervise the packing of the above-described articles to be returned to the Defendant, and that the Defendant will not come to the condominium of the Plaintiff when the above-described articles are packed up and delivered to a place to be designated by the Defendant, and two weeks prior notice shall be given to the Plaintiff of the date the moving van, truck, or any other moving conveyance designated by the Defendant will pick up said pieces of furnishings and household effects, and said furnishings and effects are to be removed from the premises of the Plaintiff within thirty days from the entry of this order, or
