FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this 4th day of October, 1971, before Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, upon the original bill of complaint, answer of the Defendant, interlocutory decrees of the Court, testimony of the parties and their corroborating witnesses heard in open Court, statement of counsel and upon the entire record in the case, from all of which the Court finds that the allegations of the bill that the Defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards Complainant as renders it unsafe and improper for her to longer cohabit with him and that the Defendant has abandoned her to turned her out of doors and failed or refused to provide for her have been fully sustained by the proof.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between Complainant and Defendant be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved; Jewel Earline Collier Lipscomb is granted an absolute divorce from Porter Wiley Lipscomb and is restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, including restoration of her former name, Jewel Earline Collier.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Complainant, Jewel Earline Collier Lipscomb, is entitled to one-half of the equity the parties have in a certain tract or parcel of land at 312 North 9th Street, Nashville, Tennessee, which equity the Court finds to be in the amount of $2,000.00 and, therefore, Complainant is granted a lien upon said property for $1,000.00.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Defendant pay to Robert H. Polk, Solicitor for Complainant, the sum of $250.00 as his fee for services rendered in this cause, which amount is allowed as a part of Complainant's alimony.

The injunction heretofore issued and in full force and effect enjoining and restraining the Defendant from coming about Complainant at her place of residence and from harming, harrassing or molesting her in any way or manner is hereby made perpetual.

The costs of the cause are adjudged against the Defendant for which and for the above money awards, execution may issue.
