From all of which, it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that the allegation contained in the complainant's bill has been fully sustained by the proof; that is, that the defendant is an habitual drunkard; that the defendant contracted the habit of drunkenness after marriage; and that, therefore, the complainant should be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

It furthering appearing to the Court that the complainant and the mother of the minor child of the parties is a fit and proper person to have the custody of the child; It is, Therefore, Further Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed by the Court that the exclusive custody and control of the minor child, Jerry Glenn

Hudgens, be, and the same is hereby, decreed to the mother and complainant, Nell Willodean Stout Hudgens, with the right and privilege of the defendant and father, Glenn Hudgens, to see and visit said minor child at reasonable times and places so long as he does not come about the home in an intoxicated condition.

It is Further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court that the defendant will pay the sum of $10.50 per week for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the parties. Said sum will be paid by the defendant into the registry of this Court weekly. The first payment will be on Friday, March 8, 1963, and each week thereafter until the child reaches his majority or is self-supporting, or until further orders of the Court. The Clerk will pay the proceeds of these weekly payments to the complainant for the care and maintenance of said minor child.
