IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

JIMMY B. WOODALL
Plaintiff

vs.

FRANCES DUFF WOODALL
Defendant

No. 84608

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on July 28, 1977 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the motion of the plaintiff, Jimmy B. Woodall, for the Court to reconsider and rehear the cause. Based upon the argument of counsel, the submission of authorities, and the entire record herein, the Court was of the opinion that such motion is well taken and should be granted. Thereafter, counsel announced to the Court that a property settlement had been reached at which time, the Court was of the opinion that a divorce should be granted to the defendant and cross-plaintiff, Frances Duff Woodall, and therefore, counsel was instructed to prepare an order incorporating the property settlement reached by the parties and their counsel and that a divorce would be granted to the defendant and cross-plaintiff, Frances Duff Woodall, upon a finding by the Court that the cross-defendant, Jimmy B. Woodall, had been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the cross-plaintiff as to render further cohabitation both unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the cross-plaintiff, Frances Duff Woodall, be and she hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the cross-defendant, Jimmy B. Woodall, and that each party be restored to all of the rights and privileges of a single person and that, in addition, the cross-plaintiff be restored to her previous name, Frances Duff Henry.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED by the Court that the property settlement entered into by and between the parties which in words and figures is as follows:

> Both parties realizing that the marital differences between them are irreconcilable and therefore, in consideration of the conveyances one to another, the cross-defendant, Jimmy B. Woodall, does hereby convey to the cross-plaintiff, Frances Duff Woodall, the following items:
>
> (1) one African grey parriot by the name of "Little Bird";
>
> (2) one black desk;
>
> (3) one painting which was owned by the cross-plaintiff;
>
> (4) the Roseville collection consisting of approximately 65 to 80 pieces;
>
> (5) a collection of odds and ends valued at approximately One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, which includes pots and pans etc.
>
> (6) an accordian;
>
> (7) two bird cages
>
> (8) all of the cross-plaintiff's personal property brought from Africa which includes but is not limited to the following -- the Harvard classics, the encyclopedias, writing course, large books, etc.
>
> (9) a washer-dryer;
>
> (10) cross-defendant hereby conveys all of his right, title and interest to a lake lot located in DeKalb County, Tennessee of record in Deed Book L-4, Page 794/795, Register's Office, DeKalb County, and will execute all deeds of conveyances necessary to effect such transfer.
>
> Cross-plaintiff, Frances Duff Woodall, does hereby convey to Jimmy B. Woodall, all of her right, title and interest to the property located at 244 Nunley Drive, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, along with all of the household furnishings located therein except for those specified above along with the possession of one Africian grey parriot as the cross-defendant's sole and separate estate.
>
> Cross-plaintiff further agrees to sign all documents necessary to effect a transfer of the above residence and will write a letter to the homeowners insurance company of the above residence, 244 Nunley Drive, evidencing that she does not desire any of the proceeds from a claim made for theft of certain personal property and conveys any and all interest in such claim to the cross-defendant as his sole property.

is in the opinion of the Court, fair and equitable, and shall be the order of this Court.

The cross-defendant, Jimmy B. Woodall, shall be required to pay the costs of this cause for all of which execution may issue if necessary.

Enter this the 15 day of August, 1977.
