FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

SEP 22 MISC B* 8.00 * 8.00

This cause came on to be heard on the 11th day of September, 1975 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee upon the complaint heretofore filed, default judgment duly entered, the interrogatories of complainant and witnesses, statement of counsel and the entire record herein. From all of which the Court finds that the grounds for divorce have been fully sustained in that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards her as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper. The Court further finds that the parties entered into a property settlement agreement on the 8th day of November, 1973 and said agreement is hereby approved by this Court and made a part of this decree.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same hereby are forever dissolved, complainant is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the agreement entered into between the parties on the 8th day of September, 1973 and attached herewith as "Exhibit A," is hereby incorporated into this decree and made an order of this Court.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant, Patrick Coit Thurman, pay to Jane C. Franks, attorney for complainant, the sum of $300.00 for her services rendered in this cause, for which let execution issue, if need be.

Costs of this cause to be adjudged against the defendant for which let execution issue, if need be.

A G R E E M E N T

This agreement made and entered into at Nashville, Tennessee, on this the 8th day of November, 1973 by and between Judy Sorrell Thurman, hereinafter called the wife, and Patrick Coit Thurman, hereinafter called the husband.

WITNESSETH:

Whereas the parties are man and wife and the wife has filed suit for divorce in the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County Tennessee under Rule No. 70413, and the differences are such between the parties as a reconciliation is impossible and desiring to settle their property rights subject to the approval of the Court, the parties having agreed as follows:

1. The parties have agreed that the house and lot owned by them at 639 Harpeth Bend Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, shall be divested out of them as tenants by the entirety and vested in the husband with the wife retaining a $1,000.00 lien on the house and lot or the wife retaining twenty-five per cent of the net proceeds at the time of sale not to exceed $1,000.00.

2. All furniture in the home which was given to the husband by his mother shall remain with the husband and all other furniture shall go to the wife.

3. The husband shall pay to the wife $150.00 per month child support and in addition shall be responsible for all medical and dental ex penses beyond normal routine medical and dental expenses.

4. The husband shall continue to maintain hospital and medical insurance for the minor child and shall retain life insurance which he now has in force with the exception of life and accident policies maintained through his job and that said minor child shall be made beneficiary of such policies.

5. The wife shall retain custody of the minor child with visitations for the husband beginning on Friday evenings and ending on Sunday evenings with the minor child plus a total of one month out of each year for visitation with the husband and minor child to be decided by the husband.

6. Each party shall retain the items of personal clothing, jewelry, and personal effects

RECORDER'S MEMO:
Legibility of Writing, Typing or Printing in This Document Unsatisfactory When Received.

7. So long as the husband provides more than fifty percent of support for the minor child it is agreed that he should be entitled to claim said minor child on his tax return as an exemption.

Both parties understand this agreement is subject to the approval of the Court in the event a divorce is granted to either party, however, in the event a divorce is not granted to either party or the parties reconcile, this agreement shall be of no force and effect. If approved by the Court, this agreement is a full and final and complete settlement of the property rights of the parties and the same may be incorporated in the final decree of divorce. Further, this agreement is entered into without any collusion between the parties, but solely of their own free will and accord.
