O R D E R

This cause came on to be heard this 23rd day of June, 1977, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court, on Motion of the original defendant, Buford Patterson McCord, to clarify the final Order of the Court entered on or about May 24, 1971, and there being no opposition thereto, the Court, therefore, grants the same.

It is therefore, ORDERED, that in addition to the provisions of the previous Order, that it is in order to clarify said order, all properties owned jointly by the parties at the time of the granting of the original decree, with the exception of the homeplace which specifically was granted to the original petitioner, will be fully vested in fee simple absolute to Buford Patterson McCord, and any right, title or interest which the original petitioner may have had in said property is hereby divested from her in its entirety. Said property specifically described as follows as evidenced by a copy of the original Deed and is attached as Exhibit "A" to this Order.

> "Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 12 on the Plan of Glencliff Estates, Section Four, as of record in Book 1835, page 79, Register's Office for said County.
>
> Said Lot No. 12 fronts 127 feet on the northerly side of Thompson Lane and runs back between lines, 150 feet on the easterly line, and 216.1 feet on the westerly line, to a dead line in the rear, which is a broken line, on which it measures 144.1 feet.
