WILL

I, J. U. [illegible], do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and testament:

1st. My wife, Sue Dolen [illegible], and I, having entered into a premarital contract, whereby it was agreed that the survivor should have no claim on the property of of the one first deceased which was in existence at the time of our marriage, and this testator having at that time one house and lot at 640 South Street, Shelbyville, Kentucky, and one house and lot at 1113 [illegible] Avenue, S., Nashville, Tennessee, and three thousand dollars in cash; it is my will and I do hereby devise and bequeath the property at 1113 [illegible] Avenue, S., Nashville, Tennessee, to my son, J. Miller Cole; and I do further will, devise and bequeath the property at 640 South Street, Shelbyville, Kentucky, to my son, J. Porter Cole, on the following conditions:

The Nashville property is worth [illegible] more than the property in Shelbyville, and in order to equalize the bequests between my two sons, I direct that out of the proceeds of my estate, my son, Porter, shall first be paid the sum of Two Thousand Dollars if there be sufficient funds for that purpose; and the remainder of my estate to be divided equally between my two sons. If there does not remain a sufficient amount to pay the said $2,000 to Porter, what remains, if any, shall be paid to him and Miller shall pay to him one-half of any deficit remaining; and on these terms the real estate aforesaid is conveyed to my two sons as above stated.

2nd. I hereby designate and appoint my two sons, J. Ellis Wade and C. Prowder Wade, as co-executors of this my will, with power to make such transfers of my property as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this will; and do hereby expressly direct that they be qualified and allowed to serve as executors without the execution of any bond. Said executors are hereby empowered to collect all sums or money owing to me, and to take over all money and other personal property belonging to me, and to dispose of the same as herein provided.

In Witness Whereof, I have herewith subscribed my hand to this my will, consisting of two pages, and have also signed on the margin of page one to authenticate the same, all in the presence of the witnesses hereunto subscribing, on this the 19 day of October, 1934.

J. E. Wade

We, the undersigned witnesses, do hereby certify that the foregoing instrument was signed in our presence by J. E. Wade and acknowledged by him to be his last will and testament; and at his request each of us has signed the same as witness in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other, all on the day above written.
