FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 15th day of October, 1976, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon statements of counsel, testimony of the Defendant and his witnesses and the entire record from all of which it appears to the Court that the Complaint of Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow should be dismissed and the Counter-Claim for Divorce of Robert Eugene Sparrow should be granted because it appears to the Court that the wife, Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper and it further appears that the parties have entered into a property settlement agreement dated 9 September 1976 which was made an exhibit at the trial and which in substance will hereinafter be implemented by order of this Court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the care, custody and control of Cynthia Louise Sparrow and Robert Jason Sparrow, the children of the parties, be vested jointly in the Plaintiff and Defendant with the children residing with their mother during the periods in which they are enrolled in school and with their father during the summer in which they are not required to attend school. Each parent shall have reasonable visitation privileges during the time the children are residing with other parent. Major holiday periods such as Easter, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years are to be alternated between the mother and the father.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Robert Eugene Sparrow be and is hereby granted an absolute divorce from Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to his agreement Robert Eugene Sparrow pay directly to Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow, child support of $25.00 per week per child during the period of the year when the children are residing with their mother with such payments to continue during this period during the minority of the children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all right, title and interest of the wife in and to certain real estate located in Davidson County Tennessee, known as Lot 310 on the plan of Edge-O-Lake Estates, Section 14, as of record in Book 3842, Page 202 in the Register's Office for Davidson County, be divested out of the name of the parties as husband and wife and vested in the name of Robert Eugene Sparrow as his sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Robert Eugene Sparrow shall pursuant to his agreement assume the sole obligation for all of the parties debts existing prior to their separation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Robert Eugene Sparrow pursuant to his agreement maintain hospital insurance for the children and provide Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow with a small car for her use for the next three (3) years but he may retain title and ownership of the car during the three (3) years and can take possession of the car at the expiration of the three (3) years. Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow shall be responsible for any and all maintenance on the automobile.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that for Federal Income Tax purposes that the children shall be considered dependents of Robert Eugene

Sparrow so long as he is otherwise entitled to utlize the personal exemption of the children pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued thereunder.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the following furniture and miscellaneous property become the sole property of Patricia Jeanne Sommer Sparrow:

(a) Cynthia's bedroom furniture and toys

(b) Jason's bedroom furniture and toys

(c) The parties color television set

(d) The parties den furniture

(e) The parties kitchen furniture and chairs

(f) The parties china and blue dishes

(g) The parties pots and pans

(h) The parties wahser and dryer

(i) All of the wife's clothing

(j) All of the children's clothing.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all personal property belonging to the parties not vested in the wife pursuant to the previous order shall and are hereby vested in Robert Eugene Sparrow as his sole property. The cost of this cause are taxed to the Plaintiff.
