AFFIDAVIT

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public under the laws of the State of Tennessee, Anna Leah Hannah Evans, who, after first being duly sworn by me, deposed and said:

My name is Anna Leah Hannah Evans, widow of J. L. Evans, deceased. Anna Leah Hannah Evans, Leah Hannah Evans, Anna Leah H. Evans and Mrs. J. L. Evans are all names which I have used and these names all refer to me. They are one in the same person.

I am the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hannah, both deceased. My mother used the names, Mrs. M. C. Hannah and Birdie Evans Hannah. They are one in the same person.

MISC 4.00 ★ 4.00

My mother and I were the named grantees of certain property conveyed to us in a deed of record in Book 896 page 255, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee. We took said property in the names, Mrs. M. C. Hannah and Mrs. J. L. Evans. I am the Mrs. J. L. Evans named in that deed, and my mother is the Mrs. M. C. Hannah named in that deed. My mother died on October 16, 1968, and by her will in the name of Birdie Evans Hannah, she devised all of her property to me. Said will appears of record in Will Book 92 page 158 in the Probate Court of Davidson County, Tennessee. My father pre-deceased my mother. I am the only living issue of either my father or mother. Following my parents' deaths, all state and federal estate and inheritance taxes owed as a result of their death were paid.

Further deponent saith not. [redacted] Anna Leah Hannah Evans
