This cause was heard this 26th day of April, 1974, before Honorable Hamilton Cayden, Special Judge, upon complainant's application for an absolute divorce, testimony of complainant and his corroborating witnesses in open Court, statements of counsel and the record in the cause, at which time it was made to appear to the Court that the parties had agreed their property rights, as follows:

1. That complainant will pay to defendant the total sum of $3,000.00 at the rate of $50.00 each succeeding month, commencing in June, 1974.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the hereinabove mentioned agreements of the parties be approved and made a part of this decree. Accordingly, the complainant will pay to the defendant the total sum of $3,000.00, at $50.00 each succeeding month, commencing in June, 1974, such not being a lien upon the hereinafter described real property but in the nature of alimony, and all right, title and interest of defendant, Shirley Jean Webb, in and to the real property, described as follows, to wit:
