IN THE FIRST CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

12-5-77
143C/2013

BARBARA WELCH NOLEN,

Plaintiff

vs. NO. 88392

CHARLES McKINLEY NOLEN,

Defendant

Mag. 150-6
Rec 33

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on November 28, 1977 before Special Judge Harold Collins upon plaintiff's petition for absolute divorce, upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences, personal service upon the defendant, testimony of the plaintiff, the presentation to the Court of a property settlement agreement entered into between the parties and the entire record in the cause. From all of which it is the opinion of the Court that the plaintiff should be granted a divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences, that the property settlement agreement of the parties should be approved and made a part hereto of this final decree.

It is therefore ORDERED that the plaintiff be and she hereby is granted a divorce from the defendant on the ground of irreconcilable differences.

It is further ORDERED that the property settlement entered into between the parties be approved and made an order of this Court, as copied verbatim below:

> Agreement made this 20th day of October, 1977, by and between Barbara Welch Nolen (hereinafter "Wife") and Charles McKinley Nolen (hereinafter "Husband");

Whereas the parties are married but are contemplating a separation and divorce; and

Whereas they desire to provide for an equitable division of their jointly held property;

Now, therefore, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Wife shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the washer, dryer, and refrigerator and she will assume remaining indebtedness thereon.

2. Wife will receive all right, title and interest in and to the den suite (sofa, chair and end table) and she will assume remaining indebtedness thereon.

3. Wife will receive Stephanie's bedroom suite and will assume remaining indebtedness thereon.

4. Wife will have custody of the parties' two minor children, Stephanie Anne and Jennifer Marie, and husband will have reasonable visitation rights.

5. Husband will pay child support in the amount of $100.00 per week, commencing August 1, 1977.

6. Husband will provide hospitalization and major medical insurance for the minor children and will pay all hospital, doctor, drug, dental and other medical bills incurred which are not covered under said insurance. All medical reports on the children shall be provided to Husband by Wife.

7. Husband will maintain life insurance on his life in the amount currently in force, with the minor children as beneficiaries, and Wife designated as their trustee.

8. Husband will receive all right, title and interest in and to the living room, dining room and bedroom furniture.

9. Husband will receive all right, title and interest to the parties' home located at 2985 Cherry Hills Drive, Antioch, Tennessee, he will assume remaining indebtedness thereon.

10. Husband will assume all outstanding debts of the parties with the exception of the Learners Charge Account which bill Wife will agree to assume. Husband will hold Wife harmless on all outstanding debts.

11. All school reports concerning the children shall be provided to Husband by Wife.

12. The Husband shall be entitled to take the parties minor children as income tax deductions.

13. The Wife shall be responsible for insurance on her own automobile.
