DEC 28 MISC FINAL DECREE 8* 6.00 * 6.00

This cause came on to be heard on the 4th day of August, 1975, before the HONORABLE J. [illegible] HAFFORD, JUDGE OF THE FIFTH CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, upon the original bill filed by the complainant; upon a default judgment entered against the defendant; upon testimony of complainant and that of her corroborative witnesses examined in open Court; upon argument of counsel, and the entire record; from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the allegations contained in the original bill are fully sustained; that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct toward the complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper. The Court further finds that subsequent to the filing of the bill for divorce, complainant has given birth to a child belonging to the defendant, and that child support should be set at this time.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by this Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be, and they hereby are, forever and perpetually dissolved, and that the complainant be, and she hereby is, granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to the status of a single person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the complainant be, and she hereby is, awarded the exclusive care, custody and control of the parties' minor child.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that whatever right, title, equity and interest which the defendant has in the household furniture and furnishings be, and the same hereby is, divested out of the defendant and vested into the complainant.
