MAR 29 MISC FINAL DECREE B* 6.00 * 6.00

This cause came on to be heard on this 6th day of June, 1975, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill for absolute divorce, personal service upon the Defendant, pro confesso duly taken, testimony of Complainant and witnesses in open Court, statement of counsel, and the entire record in this cause; from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the Defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards Complainant thereby entitling her to an absolute divorce from the Defendant. The Court is further of the opinion that Complainant should be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties and that the Defendant should continue to pay the sum of Thirty-Five ($35.00) Dollars per week to the Complainant for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the parties. The Court is further of the opinion that the Defendant should have reasonable rights of visitation with the minor child of the parties, however, he should be restrained from taking the child to the residence of his girlfriend, Nina Adams or to visit with the child while he is in the company of Nina Adams. Further, the Court is of the opinion that the Defendant should continue to pay the car note on Complainant's 1973 Volkswagen until same is paid in full. The Court is further of the opinion that all right, title and interest in and to the home of the parties located at 1705 Bondurant, Old Hickory, Tennessee, and all of the household furnishings located therein should be divested out of the Defendant and vested solely in your Complainant. Further, the Court is of the opinion the all right, title and interest in and to the 1973 Volkswagen automobile should be divested out of the Defendant and vested solely in your Complainant.
