ORDER

This cause came on to be heard March 31, 1978, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of the plaintiff, pro confesso entered against the defendant, witnesses introduced in open court, verbal approval to amend the bill so as to allege the ground of irreconcilable differences, which amendment the Court was pleased to grant and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court was of the opinion that the allegations contained in the original bill as amended were fully sustained, that is, that there have been such irreconcilable differences that have arisen between the parties as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff be and she is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the property settlement agreement entered into by and between the parties be and the same is hereby approved and copied verbatim into this decree as follows:

> "This agreement entered into by and between Tonie Grimes and Milton Grimes on this 22 day of February, 1978.
>
> The parties are separated and a divorce bill is pending in the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee. They wish to settle their property rights and custody and visitation privileges regarding their son, which agreement is to become a part of the final decree in the event a divorce is granted in this cause.
